ICIC is also the recruitment and outreach partner for the Goldman Sachs One Million Black Businesses: Black in Business program, a new initiative to help unlock growth and build wealth for Black women entrepreneurs.

ICIC partners with Goldman Sachs to identify high-potential entrepreneurs for the 10,000 Small Businesses initiative. The program connects business owners in underserved communities to a comprehensive program of education and support.

LGBTQ+ Business Directory
These businesses are members of our Inner City Alumni Network (ICAN), having participated in one or more of our Urban Business Initiatives:

BFG
Building for Growth (BFG) is a new tuition-free executive education program designed by ICIC that aims to help BIPOC and woman construction contractors build capacity and develop sustainable growth strategies that position their businesses to increase revenues and profits.

CSB
Cultivate Small Business is designed to help early-stage entrepreneurs in low-income neighborhoods build and sustain their businesses, with a focus on women, minority and immigrant owned businesses in food-related industries.

ICCC
Inner City Capital Connections, launched in 2005 in partnership with Bank of America, helps match investment-ready inner city companies with growth capital. The program has served 3,836 businesses that have raised over $2.3 billion in capital.

IC100
The Inner City 100 has recognized and celebrated the fastest-growing businesses in under-resourced communities in the U.S. each year since 1999. The list is published annually and unveiled at our annual national education and awards conference in December.

10KSB
ICIC partners with Goldman Sachs to identify high-potential entrepreneurs for the 10,000 Small Businesses initiative. The program connects business owners in underserved communities to a comprehensive program of education and support.
ICIC drives inclusive economic prosperity in under-resourced communities through innovative research and programs to create jobs, income, and wealth for local residents.

ICAN empowers and serves alumni by providing ongoing learning and professional development, visibility and recognition, and a network through which they may explore collaboration and contracting opportunities. Learn more.
